

THE ART AND BUSINESS OF STORYTELLING

Saturday, March 27, 2010

10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

$75 (snacks and lunch provided)

Receive a discount of $10 if you register before March 23!

Minimum 5 students, maximum 8.

1520 E. Broadway Boulevard

Tucson, Arizona

This informative workshop is designed for people interested in learning about what it takes to be a working full- or part-time storyteller.

Participants are expected to have a 3 to 5 minute story to share. It can be a folk tale, personal experience or family story.

At the end of this 5-hour intensive, you will:

- Learn how to select stories that work for you.
- Discover how to make a story your own.
- Experience the value of appreciations and suggestions.
- Understand the benefits of a peer group.
- Find out how to handle problems during performance.

You will also explore:

- Storytelling networks.
- Performance resources.
- Marketing hints and tips.
- Booking procedures.
- Establishing a customer base.

To register, send $15 deposit, payable to Glenda Bonin to 1830 E. Broadway #124-233, Tucson, AZ 85719. Deposits are refunded if enrollment is less than the minimum. Full payment is due at the beginning of the session.

DON'T FORGET to register before March 23^d, and pay just $65 for this informative storytelling workshop.

For more information, please contact Glenda Bonin: (520) 629-0270.

www.StoryWorksGroup.com